Appeal for Donation

Approximately 99 cents of every dollar that you donate is utilized for the cause of supporting the needs of the children.

Children of SCI-supported schools receive educational opportunities, nutritious meals, and support for health and well-being.

Street Children International's mission is to provide education, food, lodging, and marketable skills, as needed, to impoverished children within and outside of the USA, irrespective of race, religion, nationality, sex, colour or creed, in partnership with other recognized not-for-profit organizations, to facilitate the transition of such children from poverty to economic growth and upward mobility.

We remain committed to providing nutrition, education, and other forms of support for destitute children. Please donate generously, so that we may disburse funds to our grant recipients who are doing the necessary work of educating, feeding, and sheltering children.

Celebrating 38 Years of Service to Disadvantaged Children

Street Children International (SCI) has successfully completed 38 years of serving destitute children. This success would not have been possible without the consistent, unwavering support of our members who are determined to make a difference in the lives of disadvantaged children. SCI members hold meetings in their own homes and volunteer many hours of their time so that the funds can go directly to meet the needs of the children whenever possible. Out of every dollar collected, 99 cents are used for the children. Our administrative costs are scrutinized and pared down to basic operational needs - printing costs, mailing costs, etc. Our individual homes serve as our offices.

During the past 38 years, SCI has served hundreds of children who have learned the value of education in achieving their potential. The children in the SCI-supported schools have grown up with a strong belief that living a good life is possible if you believe in yourself. Many of these children have been able to help their family and friends to strive for a better life.

Some of our children have gone on for higher studies in local colleges, technical institutes, and even to medical college. We are hoping this positive outcome would inspire more people to join us as members and bring in their own suggestions and referrals for SCI assistance. Active participation of members can have an impact in the lives of hundreds of destitute girls and boys living in unimaginable hardship. By sparing a few dollars of our money, donors have the satisfaction of knowing that we were able to reduce some suffering and carving a path towards a life of dignity. It has been quite an adventure to inspire the children to dream big! We invite you to share our experience and be a part of this adventure.

SCI's annual fundraising program is a key event where we collect donations to support the continued effort in transforming the lives of many poor children and offer a new world of opportunities to the most underprivileged among us.

We welcome everyone to get involved: attend our meetings, learn about our current projects, and help us support these wonderful, motivated children.

My Story

I am Ankita Shau, presently in 7th standard in Mission Girls' High School in Midnapore, West Bengal, India. I am a recipient of financial help from Street Children International through Sarada Kalyan Bhandar from my early childhood (since Nursery).

Ankita Shau

I come from a very poor family from Manpur village of Gaya district in Bihar, India. We are three siblings. All three of us are/ were associated with Kalyan Pith.

In this stage, I am fortunate to get every possible help from Kalyan Pith. I get free coaching from our teachers. They are very affectionate and help me in my studies. They follow my school curriculum, and I can better understand the syllabus.

I am very happy that I am doing well in my school. I got 79% marks in my last school exam. My paintings are included in Sarada Kalyan Bhandar's annual calendar and displayed during annual functions of Kalyan Pith. I also take part in dancing performances.

Sarada Kalyan Bhandar and Street Children are helping me in fulfilling my dream to pursue my study and achieve my goal in life.
